

US Government: THE NEXT TWO CLASSES ARE ABOUT FEDERALISM

The article on Federalism is required reading for all. In response to your concerns that the text is a bit on the dry side (I agree, by the way), I will do my best to reduce the material to the essence that you have to know. Know PART I AND PART II about Federalism by the end of the class. Finish the reading for HW:

PART I: Our government is based on the POWERS the people give it: The text of the Constitution begins on page 758 of your text. Read the parts of it indicated below!

delegated power (Article I, section 8):

implied powers (Article I, section 8) also known as the Elastic Clause:

inherent powers:

reserved powers (10th Amendment):

concurrent powers:

prohibited powers (Article I, section 9)

IN CLASS: Complete the distributed Venn Diagram to show the relationship between powers in our federal system: delegated, reserved, concurrent. Provide an example to help your understanding.

PART II: RELATIONSHIPS between the federal government and the states.

Federal responsibilities (Article IV, section 4):

State responsibilities:

Full Faith and Credit Clause (Article IV, section 1): What is extradition?

Assignment: Finish the packet. 1) Be able to explain the position of states' rights vs nationalism. 2) the Commerce Clause 3) What is the Due Process Clause of the 14th Amendment?
